

SPORT

Next Sunday throughout the Missouri Valley football coaches, players, critics and would-be understanders of the game will figure out just who will win the valley championship. Some of the first games of the year will have been played by that time, the tentative line-ups will have been announced and some tangible evidence upon which to base the numerous "dope-sheets" will be possible.

Today the University of Missouri, having played the Tiger freshmen Saturday and made a fair showing, knows of twenty-four Tigers from whom will perhaps be picked the majority of the eleven men who will meet the Jayhawkers on Thanksgiving Day. Missouri sport followers have known for some time that unless the Kansas City Base Hospital Unit sailed before November 29 the Tiger backfield, with Rider, Viner and Collins, would be well worth valley notice. Now the University of Missouri is in a position to announce a group of twenty-four men who will be on the Tiger squad this year.

Line-Up for Jewell Game.

In brief, the Tiger line-up for the William Jewell game next Saturday will be chosen from these men, who will fill one of the positions designated for them opposite their names:

Slusher and Urie, ends.

Bass and Hamilton, tackles.

Kolb, Bahr, Pierson, Ewing, Greenwood, Kirkpatrick, for center position or places at guard.

Rider, Collins, Wilson, Edwards, McClain, Hungeate, for halfbacks.

Fullbacks, Viner, Marshall, Mattingly, Locke.

Quarterbacks, Morris, Stevens, Cross.

Extra ends, Schroeder and Herschel Collins.

Average Weight Between 158-161.

The University of Missouri football team that goes in against William Jewell next Saturday will average in weight from 158 to 161, an average somewhat lighter than the team that met Kansas at Lawrence last November. It will have a veteran backfield, made up of the much talked of base hospital men, Rider, Viner and Collins as the big part of it, and a comparatively new line, having for its old letter men Hamilton, Slusher and Bass.

"There's a backfield," was the comment of Schulte after a recent practice on Rollins Field. "But the sword of Damocles is hanging over them. If someone should twist the string and take Rider, Collins and Viner off to France with that Kansas City Base Hospital Unit, it would surely be a blow to us now."

Schulte hasn't begun to worry as yet about the possibility of a defeat from William Jewell. He looks for a good team, but hardly contemplates defeat from the men of Coach Boles of the Liberty team. The sensational running fullback of the Jewells, Strauss, is no longer with the Liberty team. Missouri hasn't played the Jewell men for some time, but feels that the Tigers now on hand should be able to cope with the invaders easily enough.

Schulte Working on Line.

Schulte is working on the line, straightening out some of his best men who have had trouble with signals and supervising two schools of kickers lately. Greenwood, a Kansas City boy, who seems assured of a place on the team, very probably at center, has had some trouble with the signal work, but the coach hopes to get him straightened out soon. Slusher, the dean of the kicking squad, is now in charge of Schroeder and Collins and every day some time is devoted to the "booting" work. Slusher's kicking has averaged forty yards and this, to Coach Schulte, is considered pretty good work. Collins and Schroeder are being trained for emergency kicking.

In the drop kicking class "Chuck" Wilson, the second, and McClain are training, while Bass, Collins, Hamilton and Wilson are all being given workouts at place kicking.

Urie and Slusher seem assured places at ends right now. Greenwood seems to have won the right to play some of the time at least in the line, and Kirkpatrick, a stalwart lad, is looking good for another place in the line. Schulte promises a chance for more different men on the various line-ups this year than there were last year.

"It's going to be a humdinger of a season," is the word given out by Coach Schulte. "The teams of the valley are going to be better despite the war, perhaps due to the fact that there was such a great influx of freshmen last year. The Kansas Aggies, with eleven letter men back, Kansas with eight and Nebraska with seven should show up mighty well in the conference race. But Missouri has a few hopes of her own, you can bet on that."

World Series Players

Will Get Big Pay.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The biggest financial bonus of the baseball year is to be distributed soon in the form of a division of the gate receipts of the World Series games of 1917. When the New York National and Chicago American League players receive their share of the money, paid in the form of admission charges by the thousands of spectators who will attend the contests, they will be able to deposit to the credit of their bank accounts sums larger than the yearly income of many of the fans who will witness the play.

The players will not be the only ones to profit, however, for the club owners and the National Commission also come in for a per centage of the receipts, which are expected to exceed a quarter of a million dollars this season. Under the rules of the latter body, which have governed the World Series since 1905, the division is made in the following manner: The National Commission receives 10 per cent of the receipts of each and every game played by the contending clubs; the remaining 90 per cent of the first four games is divided upon a basis of two-thirds to the players of the contending clubs and one-third to the club owners. With the playing of the fourth game the players cease to share in the receipts and the two clubs involved divide the receipts equally, after the National Commission has taken its 10 per cent. The players' share of the World Series funds are apportioned upon a basis of 60 per cent to the winner and 40 per cent to the loser, while the two clubs as corporations are required to contribute a certain amount of their portions to the leagues of which they are members.

That these sums are not to be considered lightly, even in the present days of extraordinary financial operations, may be realized when it is stated that the receipts of the thirteen series played since 1903 have aggregated $2,874,224. Of this huge amount the players have received $1,150,823, the club owners $1,411,156 and the National Commission $282,242. The rules governing the series specify that each club shall name in advance of the play the men who are eligible to participate in the games. These players each receive one share of the winning or losing team's percentage, with certain arrangements for groundkeepers, mascots and others connected with the teams in a minor capacity.

RUSSELL L. RICHARDS TO WED

Catherine H. Jones of Honolulu Will Be Navy Man's Bride.

The engagement of Russell L. Richards, who was graduated from the School of Journalism last June, to Miss Catherine H. Jones of Honolulu has been announced. Until a few weeks ago when he accepted a position as assistant paymaster in the United States Navy, Mr. Richards was employed in the advertising department of the Honolulu Stat-Bulletin. An article in the Star-Bulletin says of the engagement:

"Returning to Honolulu on the Wilhelmina after a short trip to the mainland, Mrs. Edwin A. Jones announced the engagement of her youngest daughter, Miss Catherine H. Jones, to Russell L. Richards. The couple may be married about Christmas time.

"The engagement is the climax of a picturesque romance which found its setting on the beach at Waikiki, at a long series of beautiful parties, and in the home of one of the oldest and widest known residents of the territory—Mrs. Ino S. Fuller.

"Dick Richards came to Honolulu last July from the University of Missouri where he had just completed a course in journalism, to take a position in the advertising department of the Star-Bulletin. On the ship coming down he met Miss Jones, who was returning home from Smith College for the summer vacation.

"The first friendship formed on the boat became closer as the couple were feted throughout the summer. But in August Mr. Richards received word that his number had been drawn in the draft—that he would have to return to enter the service of the government. He had one alternative, which was to enter the navy in which he had already passed an examination for a commission.

"This he decided to do and left Honolulu during the latter part of last month. At that time Mrs. Jones received an urgent call from relatives on the mainland and decided to leave on the same boat. Then her daughter decided that she, too, would leave then in order to return to college.

"Arriving in San Francisco the engagement was announced. The party left shortly afterwards for the East where Miss Jones will re-enter Smith College and Mr. Richards will become an assistant paymaster in the United States navy."

WHILE YOU WORK FOR OTHERS BANK YOUR MONEY AND SOME DAY OTHERS WILL WORK FOR YOU

Every owner of every store or factory, almost without exception, was an employee in it once. If you ever intend to be at the head of a large concern you must have the money to back it.

Moreover, if you have the reputation of being "A man with money in the bank" going over the top will be easier for you. Worthwhile concerns will give you responsible positions. They have proof that you are persistent and reliable. No recommendation is half so good.

To bank your money makes your future security threefold. It pays you an annual interest; you have prepared for the opportunity, and the larger salaries adds to your pile the faster.

Common sense should tell you that money will come in hand some day. The only question is:

WILL YOU HAVE IT WHEN YOU NEED IT?
